

Dave Stevens

Legless Athlete, Motivational Speaker

Dave Stevens is an inspirational athlete, Emmy Award winning sports journalist, and father to three boys who brings his story of grit and perseverance to audiences of all ages.

Although he was born without legs, from a very young age Dave developed a passion for sports. With persistence and support from his family and coaches, he became a star high school athlete, went on to play college and professional sports, and was a sports journalist at ESPN for 20 years.

Dave's amazing and uplifting story has taken him around the world, from corporations to colleges, grade schools to arenas. His message is the same: you can do anything in life that you put your mind to, despite the odds. See Dave in Action

AS SEEN ON

SPEAKING TOPICS

Motivation & Inspiration

Dave shares his inspirational story of determination and hope, while challenging audiences to reflect on their personal or professional goals, strengths and difficulties. Participants will leave Dave's presentation ready to overcome challenges and reach for their "impossible" dreams.

Diversity & Inclusion

Dave brings a powerful first-hand perspective to audiences on how to naturally integrate people with disabilities into academic, workplace and social settings. Does your audience struggle with their own physical, intellectual or emotional disabilities? Dave shares his heart-felt and practical message on how to turn those dis-abilities into abilities.
